

Household cleaning products

Household Hazards

Potentially Harmful Foods

Chocolate

Alcoholic beverages

Tobacco products, Nicotine patch & Marijuana

Keep your dog or cat safe from these...

Coffee all forms

Greasy, fatty human foods

Moth balls, Rat/mouse poison, Some slug baits

Citronella oil & Candles

Fire logs

Grapes

Xylitol sweetener

Apple seeds, stems & leaves

Vitamins & Diet pills

Prescription drugs, Ibuprofen, Acetaminophen, & Cold medicine

Fabric softener sheets

Peach & Plum pits

Raisins

Yeast dough

Lawn Fertilizer & Bone Meal

Some insecticide products

Cocoa mulch

Macadamia nuts

Avocado

Moldy or spoiled food

Electrical cords & Festive lights

Ribbon, Garland & Tinsel

Dental floss, Rubber bands, & String

Onions

Garlic powder

Garlic

Inhalers

Batteries

Small toys, with small parts

Salt

Rhubarb

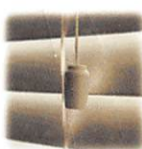

Raw eggs, Milk & Other dairy products

Windshield washer fluid & Antifreeze

Ice melter products

Blind cords

Cherries

Some mushrooms

Chicken, Rib & Fish bones

Improperly maintained fences

AVENTIX

Prepared by AVENTIX www.aventix.ca. Information was sourced from the ASPCA. The degree of harm these items may cause depends on the animal and the amount consumed. If your pet has ingested one of these items call your veterinarian, visit a Veterinary Emergency Clinic or call the 24/7 ASPCA Poison Control Hot Line (888) 426-4435 (possible fee for consultation). ASPCA website is <http://www.aspc.org/pet-care/animal-poison-control>. Copyright AVENTIX 2013, Poster Series: Keeping Dogs & Cats Safe II.